Subject: Adobe Acrobat Version 8.1.1

Today, Adobe announced the release Acrobat 8.1.1. In this update, references to FedEx Kinko's have been removed from the toolbar and drop-down menu of Adobe Reader, and the drop-down menu of Adobe Acrobat.

The Acrobat 8.1.1 update is available from the Adobe downloads page by manually selecting the following URL:

<http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>

Users of Acrobat and Creative Suite products will be prompted to download this update. If the update manager has been manually turned off by a user or system administrator, users may go directly to the URL above and download the update.

Thank you.
